ANIMALPHABET THE MUSICAL is an exciting new theatre production aimed at all children up to the age of 11. The production combines fun characters, catchy songs, puppetry, musical education and a funny storyline to capture the imagination of our family audience.

Colin the Country Cockatoo, an unlikely hero, is tasked with a mission to reunite the AnimAlphabeters following a disagreement with Metro The Gnome. Aided by Scaley the Snake, Cockatoo must find Alligator, Bear, Donkey, Elephant, Frog and Giraffe so the sorry song can be sung. It would all be so easy if it wasn't for that dastardly duck, Calando who attempts to thwart Colin on his mission every step of the way.

AnimAlphabet features Kerry Ingram (Game of Thrones, Olivier Award Winning Matilda, Netflix Mystery Horse Project) as the voice of Metro The Gnome.

AnimAlphabet is a brand new musical with music by Al and Sam of The Hoosiers. It's a fun, fast paced comical journey that will leave your audiences smiling with joy and no doubt singing the very catchy songs all the way home.

I am delighted to be supporting Hit the Mark's AnimAlphabet here at South Hill Park Arts Centre. This is a wonderful way of encouraging children to have fun with music, rhythm and harmony. We meet a fantastic series of animal characters, each with their own cleverly crafted song by the writing team, Al and Sam of the Hoosiers. So much love and humour has been put into the writing of this piece which I am certain will be a huge hit.
