London Premiere: "My Love Lies Frozen in the Ice."

I would like to invite you to come along and follow us through the whiter than white snow and darker than dark days, where nothing is what it seems. A dark and mysterious true story, which tells the tale of three explorers in 1897, who took to the North Pole in a hydrogen filled balloon. Leaving behind a woman who couldn't forget about them. Simple yet magical visual images with playful storytelling, music and laughter. A heartwarming, funny and tragic tale.

★★★★★ "at turns both hilarious and heartwarming... My Love Lies Frozen in the Ice is what makes the Fringe a magical, special place. It's definitely a must see" *Edmonton Journal

A Tale of Love, Loss, and Madness.

Dead Rabbits Theatre Company are interested in telling stories from the perspective of women, using a strong female protagonist, a cast of second generation migrants, a guy from Essex and with company direction and leadership from Kasia, "a foreigner and a woman."

The style is highly visual: using ensemble storytelling, live music, puppetry and a large dose of humour. A curious bunch of people who celebrate our cultural differences and who try and find what connects us.

Pick of the Edmonton Fringe August (2017)
Volunteers and Staff Award – Top Pick Edmonton Fringe (2017)
Best Emerging Artists Calgary Fringe Festival (2017)

What Next for this Company?

May 2019 The company begins work on their next project looking at "celebrating difference" from the perspective of second generation immigrants, and in May 2019 and are currently looking for partners.
