BABA'S SONG

by In Our Hands

A vocal journey into the messiness of one woman's motherhood.

Baba's Song is a wild roar in the woods and a panic attack in Mothercare.

Performed by two women in just a metre squared playing space, Baba's Song takes us on a thrilling, dark and humorous journey into the experiences of new motherhood, sleeplessness and the restrictions around finding your own voice as a new mother.

Devised and Performed by Jannah Warlow & Kim Heron, Directed by Emma Williams, Music Advice by Verity Standen, Movement Direction by Laura Dannequin, Costume by Miranda Pfunder, Lighting by Joe Price (original design by Chris Collier), Produced by Naomi Lange
