

Carol Lesley-Green

9 days ago

A well crafted script, beautifully performed and totally engaging. It transports you to a bygone era, as nurse Philomena McGuinness takes you on her poetic journey.

Michelle Joyner

9 days ago

I really loved this piece, the storytelling and poetry are both entertaining and moving. It is very evocative and creates an entire world in a different time and place. Highly recommend!

Evan Quinlan

13 days ago

An incredibly engaging story delivered by Jasmin Gleeson in such a likeable and relatable way that I found myself caring deeply about the character from the very start.

Simon Griffiths

10 days ago

A really engaging and moving story - had my fiancé in tears at the end
Well acted and definitely worth going to see

Liza Grashion

1 day ago

Amazing piece of work delivered with such skill. Beautifully observed, both funny and thought provoking. An excellent actress.

Michael Duncan

14 days ago

A wonderful display of acting. My wife cried. One of the best one person shows I have ever seen at the festival. Go and see this show.

Cappy Benton

6 days ago

5 STARS - Jasmin Gleeson is great. She effortlessly holds your attention the entire time. And when she's not performing she puts on her PR hat, and personally hands out flyers on the Royal Mile to promote the show.

Adam Matthews

about 24 hours ago

I went on impulse after picking up a flyer on the Royal Mile. An absolute delight of a performance. Brilliant acting that immersed you with ease in Philomena's story. Beautifully written and highly accomplished acting. Thank you Jasmin Gleeson for your talent.