

WILL TELL AND THE BIG BAD BARON - COPY AND REVIEWS

COPY

This original show for families introduces a new legendary figure to British drama: the 'Swiss Robin Hood', Wilhelm Tell, who refused to bow to a tyrant and famously had to shoot an apple off his child's head with a crossbow as a punishment.

A fun-filled colourful comic adventure with capers around castles, damsels in distress, a jaw-dropping joust with horse puppets, woven together with engaging storytelling and catchy original songs.

Join plucky heroine Will as disguised as a knight she rides off on her donkey Rosina to rescue her folk hero dad Wilhelm Tell from the wicked Baron Boris's deepest darkest dungeon. Inspired by the exploits of her father and the tales of Robin Hood and Sir Lancelot, Will knows all about standing up to tyrants but nothing has prepared her for when the Baron's daughter Edel falls madly in love with her and wants to be rescued too. But can Will, with just pots and pans for armour and a farm donkey for a steed, rescue Edel and defeat the Big Bad Baron?

Age: For the whole family. Recommended 3+.

SHORT COPY

A fun-filled comic adventure about Wilhelmina Tell's attempt to rescue her folk-hero dad from the wicked Baron Boris's deepest darkest dungeon. A hilarious new play for the whole family.

REVIEWS

"A cracking show delivering the right dose of comedy magic The adults in the audience were laughing as much as the kids."

★★★★★ Edinburgh Life With Kids, 2022

"An August without Theatre Fideri Fidera would be like the Edinburgh Tattoo without bagpipes."

★★★★★ Get Your Coats On, 2022

"This is a lovely feel-good tale for children."

★★★★★ Fairy Powered Productions, 2022

"A great family show. Highly recommended."

Fringe Review, 2022

Theatre Fideri are Primary Times children's choice award winners.